plea for police accused

...ment for land depart- the ap- ng cus- s. mande registrar, P S or illegal ernment causing ore to the l, govern- ns. In the meantime, the Kukatpally police urged the court to grant 10 days police custody for the accused since they need to extract lot of vital information from them and collect documents crucial for the case.

However, the advocates appearing on behalf of the accused opposed the plea on the ground that police had already questioned the accused elaborately for five days and there was nothing left to reveal. After hearing both sides, the court refused to grant police custody. Meanwhile, all the three accused filed bail applications and the arguments on the bail pleas would take place after the prosecution files counters on Wednesday.
